MEXICANS IN ACTION

Zapatista Rebels Engaging Federals in Northern Mountains.

© 1913, by American Press Association.

This is the kind of warfare that is being carried on just across the border of the United States. Many bullets from the rifles of both sides of the fray fall on American soil and sometimes hit American citizens. It is to keep the belligerents on their own ground that Uncle Sam is maintaining a small army along the Mexican boundary.

California Representative Leads the Attack On McReynolds, Sharply Criticizing the Latter's Course in the Diggs-Caminetti Case. Democrats Reply Vigorously to the Onslaught of the Opposition.

Washington, July 30.—President
Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds were vigorously assailed by Republicans and Bull Moose and as vigorously defended by Democrats, in debate on the Caminetti-Diggs white slave case in the house. The discussion was the outcome of a filibuster that has held up business in the house more than a week.

The resolution of Mr. Kahn of California was reported from the judiciary committee. It called on the attorney general to produce a telegram addressed to United States Attorney McNab at San Francisco, directing McNab to take no action in the white slave cases until he had received further advice from the department of justice. The telegram was produced.

The committee report recommended that the Kahn resolution be laid on the table. Arrangements were then made for a five-hour debate, in which Mr. Kahn, who criticized the administration, and many Democrats and Bull Moose took part.

Mr. Kahn severely criticized President Wilson for permitting McNab to resign from the service. "Instead of having been blamed, McNab should have been commended by the president," said Mr. Kahn. He insisted that Diggs and Caminetti were favored because they were able through powerful friends to bring influence to bear on the administration.

Mr. Kahn pointed out that the telegram holding up the trials was sent more than a month before Secretary Wilson asked the attorney general for delay.

Flying Fire Apparatus
Is Predicted By Mayor

Boston, July 29.—A flying machine fire department for Salem was predicted today by John F. Hurley, Mayor of that city. Fire engines, hook and ladders, hose wagons and aerial water towers of the future will go through the air on wings of aeroplanes instead of using the city streets, according to Hurley's ideas.

Mayor Hurley delivered himself of these sentiments during a visit to Somerville Police Headquarters, where he called for the purpose of looking over the new automobile combination police patrol and ambulance.

NEW MOVE IN MEXICAN MUDDLE

Washington Government to Delay a Final Decision Pending the Efforts of Those Behind the New Program in the Neighboring Republic—Wealthy Mexican Leaves For Home On Important Mission.

Washington, July 30.—That the administration intends to go slowly in attempting to solve the Mexican problem is now clearly indicated. No move has been made on the part of the president or Secretary Bryan toward altering in any way the present state of affairs.

The idea uppermost in the president's mind with reference to Mexico is mediation of some sort, and it is the present intention to try to shape it into a definite plan. The president is not inclined to rush headlong into even a proposal of mediation.

It is the expectation that it will be many days before the administration makes any decisive move in regard to the Mexican situation. Meantime the impression is growing that out of the efforts to work out a program of conciliation and compromise in Mexico there may result something which will render unnecessary any drastic action by the United States. While this movement toward a compromise, the chief feature of which is, of course, the elimination of President Huerta, is wholly outside the administration, President Wilson is inclined Dayton Man Named Superin-

THE BIG GUNSPLAN FOR BEAUTIFYING
THE PANAMA CANALPresident Sends Art Commission's Report to Congress.

Washington, July 30.—President Wilson sent to congress a report by the fine arts commission outlining a plan for beautifying the Panama canal. This includes the erection of at least two monuments and impressive architectural features at the entrance.
Daniel C. French, the New York sculptor, and Frederick Law Olmstead, landscape architect of Boston, spent two weeks on the isthmus representing the commission, and the report submitted is based on their recommendations.

One of the most important recommendations made is for a permanent memorial or monument at the point of the deepest cut at Culebra, where the canal passes through the continental divide. This cut is 492 feet deep, and the commission recommends that a monument be placed in the side of the cut at least 100 feet high and of greater width, suitable for some impressive inscription in Roman lettering that may be read from the other side of the canal. The commission also recommends a monument on Gold Hill, the highest point of the Culebra cut.

The commission suggests some suitable structure in the form of an arch or other markings that will denote the point where the channel from Limon bay ends and where the canal actually begins at the Atlantic entrance, and something similar at the Pacific entrance.

Daughter of Mrs. Harriman Loses
Jewels Valued at $60,000.

New York, July 30.—A pearl necklace valued at $60,000 and other jewels bringing the total up to at least $75,000 were stolen from Mrs. Charles Cary Rumsey, daughter of the late E. H. Harriman, at her summer home at Narragansett Pier. The theft was the work of persons who had acquainted themselves with the place where Mrs. Rumsey kept her jewels, for there was no rummaging for them.
Burns operatives have the case.

The stolen property comprised five pieces. The first of these in value, $80,000, the pearl necklace, was a wedding gift to Mrs. Rumsey from her mother, the widow of the railroad man.

to Uncle Sam.

Washington, July 30.—That the Japanese controversy is still far from settlement was indicated when it was learned that the government of Japan has informally notified Secretary of State Bryan that it intends to submit another note in reply to the last received from the United States.

It had been the hope of the administration that Japan would have nothing further to say on the subject following the receipt by her of the last note from Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bryan hoped that the Japanese would see that the case had been settled by argumentative demonstrations that the treaty had not been violated by the California alien law and that no discrimination against Japan is intended by the Washington government. It is now apparent, however, that Japan is not going to rest content with the reiterated statement upon the part of the United States that there is no cause for complaint on her part.

It is now well understood here that the United States government has nothing to offer Japan in the way of reparation for the California alien law and that up to the present no concessions are contemplated.

UNPLEASANT HOUR ON STAND

Former Lobbyist Receives a Panning
From Majority Leader Underwood,
Who Makes Use of the Words
Blackmailer and Liar—Speaker
Clark Also Contradicts Statement
Made by Witness.

Washington, July 30.—Martin M.
Mulhall finished his identification of letters he wrote and received in the 10 years he claims to have been the lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers.

The senate investigating committee will next turn its attention to examination of Mulhall, and attorneys for the association and for the American Federation of Labor, also involved in the correspondence, will begin the cross-examination of the witness.

Mulhall was called a liar and a blackmailer by Democratic Leader Underwood of the house. Mulhall swore that he had tried to get Chairman Wilson of the labor committee interested in the story he is now telling and that Speaker Clark and Minority Leader Mann of the house had turned down an opportunity to conduct an investigation of his activities.
The speaker and Mr. Mann, he said, had been approached on this subject
by Representative James T. McDermott of Illinois.

"Neither Mr. McDermott nor anybody else ever showed me the Mul-hall letters and papers," said Speaker Clark in a statement. "Neither Mr.
McDermott nor anybody else ever spoke to me about them. I never knew that Mulhall had any letters or papers until I saw in a newspaper that he had sold them to a New York paper."

After one look at the witness Underwood said: "I never saw him before in my life. You think that it is in the interest of the public that a man who has taken liberties with public men as this man has, should be contradicted. I regard a man of this kind as a blackmailer. That man has never been in the ways and means committee. You may have been right. He may have had conversations with me, but he said he had an interview; but I want to say that statement is a lie."

Mr. Underwood appeared unexpectedly and made a brief statement before he was sworn. He denounced Mulhall's statement that an employe of the ways and means committee had been in his employ. According to Mulhall's earlier testimony, the man was paid $20 a month.

"You made a statement that this man was a blackmailer; that meant he used threat to extort money," said Senator Reed. "I think he was trying to get money out of his own people," returned Mr. Underwood.

Chairman Underwood read Mul-hall's letter about the alleged interview which Mulhall wrote that Underwood had told him that he could not do otherwise than appoint William B. Wilson, now secretary of labor, chairman of the house labor committee, because there was no other candidate before the ways and means committee.

"That whole statement is a lie out of whole cloth—Not a word of truth in it," declared Mr. Underwood.
"There never was a question about Wilson's selection as head of that committee."

Mulhall reiterated he had talked with Underwood briefly in the corridor and had written to his employers
"about conditions just as I found them in Washington at that time."

Cox Would Remove Those Who Abused Their Commissions.

Columbus, O., July 30.—General
"clean-up" of notaries who lent their offices to questionable practices in connection with the referendum petition scandal was promised by Governor Cox and Attorney General Hogan.
They are convinced that there have been grave abuses of notarial powers in the verifying of petitions, as well as in the administration of oaths to other public documents. That notaries who swore petition peddlers to the genuineness of signatures when they were forgeries will lose their certificates, practically is assured.

Three Young Men Hit by Electric Car
and Badly Injured.

Stuebenville, O., July 30.—Three youths were injured, one fatally, while asleep on the interurban railroad.
John and David Brenner, brothers, 19 and 17, respectively, and Philip Koch, 18, all of Wheeling, W. Va., were the victims. They were struck by a car. Koch's skull was fractured and he will die. Brenner's right leg was cut off and David lost his left leg.

OPPOSITION TO TREATY

Washington, July 30.—Opposition is developing to Secretary Bryan's treaty which establishes what amounts to a protectorate over Nicaragua. Following a meeting of the foreign relations committee, most of which was devoted to a consideration of the treaty, the opponents of the convention expressed confidence that it never would be ratified. The matter was postponed until Saturday when Secretary Bryan will again appear and make further explanation of his plans.

BARN DESTROYED NEAR JONESBORO

Another Mysterious Barn Fire Occurs Late Yesterday Evening When Flames Start in Hay Loft And Quickly Burn Barn And Its Contents—P. B. Carr Loses All of His Farming Implements And Other Equipment.

A barn owned by P. B. Carr of Jonesboro, was burned to the ground late Tuesday evening, by a blaze originating in the hay mow.

The fire started about 5:30 o'clock and within a remarkably short time all that was left was a mass of glowing embers and twisted steel.

All of Mr. Carr's farming implements, tools, harness, together with considerable hay, fell prey to the flames, and his loss will reach several hundred dollars, as he carried only $200 insurance on the barn and contents.

The blaze was noticed shortly after it started, and was leaping from the hay loft. A slight breeze carried the burning embers away from the residence so that there was no danger of it catching fire from the burning barn.

Mr. Carr is of the opinion that the blaze started from matches, but is at a loss to know how matches could have been left in the barn. He does not suspect incendiarism.

SCHAFER LANDED IN COUNTY JAIL

Chief McCoy returned from Springfield Tuesday evening via Xenia, bringing with him Oscar Schaffer, colored, arrested upon an affidavit charging him with non-support of minor children.

Schaffer was lodged in the county jail to await his hearing.

GREENFIELD BAND COMING TO-NIGHT

Tonight is the time announced for an open air concert to be given by Price's Premier Band of Greenfield, and unless unexpected changes are made the band will be here between seven and eight o'clock, and will deliver a concert on the street.

A crowd of several thousand persons greeted Price when the last concert was given here by the Chautauqua Boosters.

From 25 to 50 automobile loads from Greenfield will accompany the band to this city.

BIG SHIPMENT OF FINE SHOES

On Tuesday an unusual amount of attention was attracted to a particularly large load of shoes being transported through the streets by the Pine Transfer company.

The shipment was perhaps the largest which Mr. Pine has transported in one load from The Hagerty Shoe factory in Milwood to the rail road terminals.

The "wagon load" (and it was one too) consisted of 104 cases of shoes, or 3,269 pairs, the whole consignment valued at $5,599.55.

The shoes were consigned by the makers to different dealers in cities west of the Mississippi river and consisted of ladies' and children's shoes.

The big wagon load passing through the streets of the city again brought to the attention of Washington people the splendid business which the prosperous Hagerty shoe factory is doing. It seems that the greatest difficulty the factory encounters is to keep pace with the orders which are pouring in from all sections for shoes.

It is doubtful if a load of merchandise representing a larger money value was ever transported across the city by wagon, than the one Tuesday by Mr. Pine.

ATTEND THE BIG PICNIC TOMORROW AT NEW HOLLAND

It is estimated that 10,000 people will attend the Big Home Coming, Field Meet and All-Day Picnic to be held in Evans' and Wittgott's grove at New Holland, O., on Thursday, July 31.

This monster entertainment will be under the auspices of the K. of P. and M. W. A. Lodges.

Price's Premier Band of 30 pieces will furnish music.

Two balloon ascensions, one at 10 a. m. and one at 5 p. m.

Ball games, merry-go-round, and other free attractions. Athletic events, handsome prizes. Motor races, biggest prizes of the season. Good clean shows. Plenty of entertainment.

Come, bring all the family and stay all day. Plenty of shade. Clear, cold water, lunch and refreshments on ground. Everything bigger and better than last year.

Admission 10c. Vehicles free.

CLAIMS SPRINGFIELD POLICE ARE MISTAKEN

That the Springfield police are mistaken in their accusation of Leo Brandon, whom they alleged is wanted there for skipping from prison, is the claim made by young Brandon's father, Doc. Brandon.

Brandon claims that his son never worked in Springfield, and is not married, and that the Springfield police have evidently gotten the name of Monroe George confused with that of his son, as George was arrested in Springfield at one time for beating up a woman with whom he had been living.

Young Brandon is employed as cook at the Cherry and is now going about his duties regularly, and claims that the reason he did not return to this city Sunday as early as he desired was that he missed his train.

GOVERNOR COX EARLY MORNING VISITOR IN CITY

Governor James M. Cox and James A. Devine, recently appointed head of the State Building and Loan Department, arrived in this city by auto from Columbus Wednesday morning at 7:20 o'clock and after breakfast at the Cherry Hotel and shaking hands with friends here, they left at 7:50 o'clock for West Union, where Governor Cox delivered an address on "Ohio's New Laws" at the West Union Chautauqua. He arrived in West Union shortly before eleven o'clock, and was met by a committee headed by Sheriff Williams, of Adams County.

In order to fill his engagement at West Union it was necessary for the Governor to leave Columbus without his breakfast.

GENERAL CHANGES IN POSTAL SYSTEM

Parcel Post Rates to Be Reduced Beginning Aug. 15.

CARRY HEAVIER PACKAGES.

Maximum Weight to Be Twenty Pounds—Postmaster General Expects Eventually to Make It a Hundred Pounds—Government Buys Autos For Delivery Purposes.

Washington.—Plans for the extension, improvement and reduction in rates of the parcel post were announced by Postmaster General Burleson. The changes, which are to become effective on Aug. 15, include an increase from eleven pounds to twenty pounds in the maximum weight of parcels; a material reduction in the postage rates in the first and second zones, the abandonment of the parcel post map as a means of computing rates and the substitution for it of a rate chart individualized to every postoffice in the United States.

The plans contemplate the purchase of a large number of automobiles to be used exclusively for the delivery of parcel post matter.

While for the present the maximum weight limit of twenty pounds and the reduction in rates will apply only to the first and second zones, from any given postoffice—a distance of about 150 miles—the changes directed constitute the first long step toward a universal extension of the system and a general reduction in the rate of postage on parcel matter.

"It is my expectation and belief," said the postmaster general, "that eventually—and it may be fifteen or twenty years—the postal service will handle practically all of the small package transportation business in the United States. The maximum weight limit, extended now from eleven to twenty pounds, I expect to see increased to 100 pounds, and experience may demonstrate the practicability of handling the parcel business at even lower rates than we now propose.

"In the making of extensions and reductions of rates it is necessary for us to proceed with caution, so as to afford ample opportunity to prepare for the increased business. For that reason we have made the changes proposed apply only to the first and second zones. I appreciate fully the sentiment for an increase in the weight limit and a reduction in rates to all zones, but it is necessary for us in a sense to feel our way."

ONE SQUIRREL DID IT ALL.

Brought Out Police and Lured Two Men Near Death.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Two men were nearly fatally shocked, police reserves were called out and business temporarily suspended in the center of the city because of the antics of a gray squirrel which escaped from a store, climbed a telegraph pole and then walked over a mile of wire along the main thoroughfare of the city.

The two men had a close call when they climbed poles and tried to capture the squirrel. Thereafter a squad of police followed its trail to keep others from climbing the poles.

At night the squirrel camped on a pole on the board walk. Next day he was electrocuted while endeavoring to go back over the route he covered.

Hard Cider in Cistern.

Bonner Springs, Kan.—The discovery of a cistern filled with hard cider on a farm near Bonner Springs has solved a mystery that has baffled the law officers of Wyandotte county for more than a year.

Frequent complaints had been filed with the prosecuting attorney that many men and boys in this vicinity were being ruined by strong drink, but the utmost vigilance failed to disclose the source of liquor supply.

The cistern was found by one of the prosecutor's assistants, disguised as a farm hand.

The farmer who owned the cistern was enjoined from selling or making cider, and the cistern and its contents were destroyed.

MUCH INTEREST OVER PARCEL POST CHANGE

Local interest in the new parcel post ruling which permits the carrying of packages weighing 20 pounds instead of only eleven, is growing, and both merchants and consumers are interested, as the eleven pound limit barred many articles that could otherwise have been shipped at less expense than by express or special deliveryman.

The new law goes into effect August 15th and all packages up to 20 pounds will be carried in the mails.

Under the new rate, in the local and first two zones, including all Ohio and portions of the bordering states, the tariff will be five cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional pound up to 20. The old rate has been six cents for the first pound and four cents for each additional pound up to 11 in the second zone and five and three cents in the first zone.

A new rate on local parcel post delivery also will be effective on any delivery address on any of the ten rural routes operating out of Washington C. H. Under this rate the first pound will continue at five cents, while the charge for each additional pound will be one cent for two pounds up to 20.

ONLY FEW DAYS LEFT FOR AMBITIOUS OFFICE-SEEKERS TO SLIDE UNDER THE WIRE

Last Day For Filing Petitions is Next Sunday. But Election Officials Are Not Required to Accept Petitions After Saturday Midnight.

NO PRIMARY IN FAYETTE OUTSIDE OF WASHINGTON

Several Petitions for Municipal Offices Now in Circulation in This City—Township Office Seekers Must be Nominated by Petition as Result of no Primary.

Several prospective candidates who are desirous of having their nominating petitions in the hands of the Board of Deputy State Supervisors of Elections within the limit prescribed by law, are busily engaged in securing the requisite number of signatures in order that the petitions may be filed not later than Saturday midnight.

Under the law such petitions must be filed thirty days before the primary, and the last day of grace is Sunday. However, the Secretary of State has ruled that the election officials are not compelled to accept petitions on Sunday.

There will be no primary election in Fayette county outside of this city. All candidates outside of Washington will be nominated by petition, which petition must be filed at least sixty days before the regular election in November.

Section 7 of Article 5 of the Constitution of Ohio provides that "Direct primaries shall not be held for the nomination of township officers of less than two thousand population, unless petitioned for by a majority of the electors of such township or municipality."

That provision of the Constitution is not self-operative and before primaries may be held for the nomination of township officers or for the officers of municipalities of less than two thousand population, it is necessary that the legislature by an act provide for the filing of such petition. Such provision is contained in the new primary election law which does not go into effect until January 1st, 1914. There is, therefore, no provision of the law which will be in effect this year and there will be no primary held in this State this year in townships or municipalities of less than two thousand population.

All candidates for elective office in any township or municipality of less than two thousand population can only be nominated by petitions signed in the aggregate, for each candidate, by not less than twenty-five qualified electors of the township or municipality. Such petitions must be filed with the Board of Deputy State Supervisors of Elections of the County not less than sixty days previous to the day of the November election.

In those municipalities wherein primary elections are held nominations may be made at the primary for all municipal officers and for members of boards of education. Candidates for municipal offices and for members of Boards of Education where primary elections are held may also be nominated by petition signed for each candidate by qualified electors of the district for which such candidates are nominated, not less in number than one for each one hundred persons who voted at the preceding general election in the district; but such petitions must be filed with the Board of Deputy State Supervisors of Elections of the County not less than sixty days previous to the day of the November election.

A partisan elector at a primary may not erase the name of a candidate printed on the political party ballot for any office and substitute therefor the name of any person of different political faith from the represented by the ballot on which the elector is voting, nor write in the blank space provided for the name of a person from another party ticket or party.

At both the primary election and the November election the ballots which have been counted will be preserved and disposed of as provided by section 5090-1 of The General Code, as passed in April, 1913. Disputed ballots which have not been counted will be placed in envelopes and transmitted as provided in section 5090 of The General Code.

HOT! HOT! HOT!

Yesterday and today have been in the front rank for genuine hot days. The mercury has been climbing so high that it has made the average citizen prespire to look at the altitude the mercury has attained.

More than one thermometer has registered above the 100 mark. Gossard's self-registering thermometer has shown the following for Tuesday and Wednesday:

Tuesday—6:00 a. m. 70; 11:30, 92; 12:30 p. m. 86; 3:30 p. m. 95; midnight, 76; 6:00 a. m. Wednesday 73; 9:30 a. m. 88; noon, 92; 2:30 p. m. 95.

TWO OVERCOME BY THE INTENSE HEAT

The intense heat has caused a number of prostrations throughout the county the past two or three days.

Tuesday was probably the worst for prostrations, and one physician in this city reports two.

John Lindsay, an engineer, who was running the threshing engine while threshing the wheat of Paul Gault, suffered a sunstroke and was in a serious condition for a while.

George Lucas, a member of the D. T. & L. section crew also suffered prostration from the sun's fierce rays and was given medical attention.

SOME TAXPAYERS STILL OUTSIDE

Tuesday, the last day for paying taxes without the penalty being assessed proved a busy one at the County Treasurer's office, and when the long lines of tax payers ceased to pour in at one door and out at the other there was over $13,000 in the county treasury collected in the one day. Monday the total amount was $10,191.

Several thousand dollars still remain to be paid in, but most of the amount is expected to be paid in by Thursday night.

CHILD DRINKS ACID DIES IN GREAT AGONY

The eighteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zimaroy Ankrom, living on the Frankfort pike a few miles from Frankfort, died in horrible agony Tuesday after drinking a bottle of carbolic acid which had been left on a table.

The little tot climbed upon a chair and reached the deadly acid while the mother was outside the house for a few minutes.

In addition to terrible internal burns, the child's face, breast and hands were also eaten by the acid.

SURPRISE PARTY

A delightful surprise party was held Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. John Wigginton's 29th birthday, at her home on Rose avenue.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Godfrey; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clouser; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Calander; Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Fortier; Mr. and Mrs. John Godfrey, daughters Lucille and Melba; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Davis and son Warren; Mr. and Mrs. George Perry, daughters Kate and Olla; Loren Perry; Mrs. Custis Michaels, daughters Hazel and Geneva; Mr. George Godfrey; Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Goldsberry, daughters Callie and Charlotte and Mrs. Blackmore.

Presenting a Question of Conduct

In "The Outlook" for July 12th, a most excellent article under the title of "Should He Have Told?" is published.

The article, as may be surmised from the title, deals with a question of conduct—a rule of ethics—law governing teacher and pupils and the relations of the one to the other and to the pupils' relations with each other.

It is really little more than a compilation of views expressed by leading educators of the land and answers given by them to a question formulated by Mr. Harlan E. Hall, principal of a high school in Mansfield, Ohio.

Mr. Hall has ingeniously framed a hypothetical question which presents a question which has given school teachers trouble ever since schools have been known and good men and women have been compelled, as teachers, to deal with boys.

"Who broke the window?" is Mr. Hall's question.

Two boys, Good and Bad, each fourteen years of age, attended the same school. Good one day sees Bad throw a stone and break a window of the school building.

Should he tell the teacher that Bad is the guilty party when asked by the teacher, "Who broke the window?"

The opinions and answers differ but the great majority uphold Good in his refusal to tell and state that the teacher exceeded his authority and invited trouble when he asked the question. Most of them, for various reasons, insist that the question should not have been asked.

We agree with the majority. That, of course, is a safe proposition in this country where we believe in majority rule.

But aside from that, boys in school have a code which is as binding upon them as the laws of the land are on grown up men.

The law of the teacher and the school board is not the only one to which the school boys are amenable. There is a higher law which every fair minded normal boy will obey, no matter what authority asks him to break its rules and that is the moral standard between boys. The hours outside the school room are longer than those spent in the school room and the boy will obey the law, naturally, which exercises the broader jurisdiction.

The discipline of the school aside from his own conduct is no concern of his—he is not charged with the duty of seeking out violators of teacher made rules and punishing them and in asking his aid the teacher admits his own weakness, and seeks to place upon the shoulders of the boy a burden which should not rightfully rest there.

The teacher should enforce his own rules and not call upon the pupils for assistance. To ask and insist on such a question is to wreck the pride and self respect which every real boy should have, by making him an outcast among his fellows, or a falsifier, which is even worse.

No wise teacher would, in our opinion, ask and insist on an answer to such a question.

Nation Which Produces the Most Is Strongest

By ROGER W. BABSON, Statistician

If it is true that all important wars of the past few centuries have been won or lost ACCORDING TO THE NET PRODUCING POWER OF THE NATIONS INVOLVED, then the next hundred years will see the greatest changes in national and international policies seen for centuries.

WHEN IT IS PROVED THAT IT IS NOT THE NUMBER OF MEN IN THE ARMIES AND NAVIES OF THESE NATIONS THAT DECIDE THE WARS, BUT THE PRODUCING POWER AND SUPPORT THAT IS BACK OF THEM, THEN THERE WILL BE A GREAT EFFORT ON THE PART OF ALL NATIONS TO DISARM AS READILY AS POSSIBLE AND PUT ALL THEIR ENERGY INTO INCREASING THE PRODUCTIVENESS OF THE DIFFERENT COUNTRIES.

Any nation which has a great standing army or navy that is out of proportion to its producing power is WEAK RATHER THAN STRONG.

So it seems to be certain that any nation which is spending a great deal of money on its army and navy, thereby supporting a great number of men in idleness, keeping them as CONSUMERS INSTEAD OF PRODUCERS, IS GROWING WEAKER rather than stronger.

Unequal Riches Increase Suicides

By the Right Rev. THOMAS F. GAILOR, Bishop of Tennessee

IT IS NO WONDER THERE ARE SO MANY SUICIDES. ON THE OTHER HAND, WE HAVE THE MAN WITH FAR TOO MUCH; ON THE OTHER, THE POVERTY STRICKEN FAMILY.

One gets the fruit, the other the husks; one gets the opportunity, the other doesn't. And so we hear people cry bitterly, "There is no God!"

But to think this way DOESN'T HELP US ANY. It doesn't make the world any better or more rational for people to say there is no God. If these people could only know, could only be enlightened!

God has granted us eternal life. Every one, RICH AND POOR ALIKE, can attain it.

Poetry For Today

LIFE'S MIRROR.

There are loyal hearts, there are spirits brave,
There are souls that are pure and true;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.

Give love, and love to your heart will flow
A strength in your unmost need;
Have faith, and a score of hearts will show
Their faith in your word and deed.

Give truth, and your gift will be paid in kind,
And honor will honor meet;
And a smile that is sweet will surely find
A smile that is just as sweet.

For life is the mirror of king and slave,
'Tis just what you are and do;
Then give to the world the best you have,
And the best will come back to you.

WILL HASTEN VOTE ON THE TARIFF BILL

Members of Senate Prepare to Abbreviate Speeches.

Washington.—There are indications that the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill debate may be materially shortened. Republican senators are preparing their speeches in abbreviated form and will require much less time than at first anticipated. The Democrats are being urged to desist from arguing and to refrain from active participation in the discussion.

President Wilson has let it be known that he would like to see the new tariff act in operation at the earliest possible date. He is pleading with senate leaders to minimize speechmaking and hasten the bill along to the final vote.

In the opinion of the president every day of delay and unsettled conditions is injurious to the business of the country. The actual taking effect of the new tariff will have a tendency to remove all uncertainty and permit business men to go ahead with their affairs on the new basis.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

24 Japanese land companies filed articles of incorporation in the state of California Saturday, bringing the total for the last week to more than 50, and hundreds more are reported to be forming. Incorporation is the means to which the Japanese farmer is resorting to nullify the new anti-alien land owner law. Oriental farmers are combining their farm lands in the belief that stock in the companies may be transferred perpetually.

The motor boat Tarragon, costing about 5,000, and an additional $5,000 for repairing, equipping, etc., used in enforcing the navigation laws along the Atlantic seaboard, has accomplished results extremely profitable to the government. Already this season some 867 violations of the laws regarding different sorts of lights, regulating gasoline, lack of a licensed engineer or navigating officer has resulted in fines aggregating $300,000. This sum has been collected in face of the fact that the department has shown leniency in case of first offenders.

Reductions in the parcel post rates, ordered by the Postmaster General and objected to by the Senate Committee on postoffices, were approved by the interstate commerce commission. In the commission's opinion are government, having entered this field of endeavor, cannot retrace its steps but must go forward until the maximum of 100 pounds has been reached and the system is the best in the world. This accomplished, there will be no room in the U. S. for the express companies which will nimbly turn back to the government a service which properly belongs to it. This will work no hardship to any holder of express securities, for the companies in the past 50 years have accumulated from excess profits more than enough money to pay off all of their stock and bonds at par.

Secretary and Mrs. Bryan are preparing for the rainy day. Mr. Bryan is lecturing whenever he can tear himself away from the state department and Mrs. Bryan has gone to Nebraska to "put up" fruit while the sun shines. For the next two or three weeks Mrs. Bryan will don a gingham apron and oversee the making of preserves, jams and jellies and the curing of dried fruit. Also chowchow, pickalilly, saurkraut and other good things to eat will be made in the Bryan farm. A special kind of grape juice will be saved for diplomatic dinners.

An Illinois farmer, living on the Cache river, south of Dequoin, claims to be the champion cantaloup raiser of the United States, and is prepared to make good his boast. On a four acre farm $4,000 has been realized this season. It is doubtful if any other crop will yield such handsome returns to the acre. Farmer Galbraith has been raising cantaloups for years and his profits have amounted to thousands of dollars. He is convinced that his little melon farm is without an equal in the country in the point of returns on a small investment.

Retiring Warden Urges Pardon of Eighty-two-year-old Soldier.

Leavenworth, Kan.—Before turning over the state penitentiary to J. D. Botkin, his successor, Warden W. W. Coddin made a last appeal to Governor Hodges recommending that David Truax, the oldest prisoner at the institution, be pardoned. Truax is eighty-two years old and is called "Daddy" by "he other prisoners."

Truax shot and killed John Lee, a comrade, and wounded William Lutz, members of the Soldiers' home at Dodge City, in 1905 for having taken a bottle of liquor out of his pocket. He was convicted and sentenced to serve twelve years. He has now served eight years. Truax receives a pension of $20 a month, which he sends to his crippled wife.

REVIVED BABY WITH LIPS.

Child Doomed, but Mother Fought Off Death For Ten Days.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Determined that her baby boy should live, though three physicians declared he could not, Mrs. J. H. Spaulding of Oklahoma City kept the spark of life aglow for ten days by artificial respiration produced by her own lips. It is the most remarkable case of artificial respiration on record.

Everet Spaulding was born six weeks ago, but soon after birth was seized with an affection of the heart. Three physicians declared the child could not live forty-eight hours. The mother, who is a native of California, resolved to bring the child to Los Angeles. On the way, in a Pullman berth, the father reached over and felt the baby's body. It was cold. He aroused the mother, who, finding that the heart had ceased beating, placed her lips over the mouth of the child, exhausted the air in its lungs and allowed fresh air to pour back. This process continued for several minutes revived the baby.

When the train reached Tucson, Ariz., the child again had died apparently. The conductor gently told the parents that the body had to be taken to the baggage car. The mother brought it back to life. Upon arrival at Los Angeles the baby appeared stronger, but four days later it grew worse, and four hours after being taken to the hospital the child was dead.

THE RACING AND CANOE TILTING THRILL LARCHMONT CROWDS; MILLIONAIRE YACHT CLUB MEMBERS IN EXCITING CONTEST

Larchmont, N. Y., July 30.—Tub racing and canoe tilting were features of the carnival of water sports under the auspices of the Larchmont Yacht club last week. In a tub race spectators have more fun than the competitors, whose buffetings about in the sea are attended by various ludicrous incidents. Canoe tilting is an exciting sport. The result of the contest is determined by the ability of the canoeist to stay in his boat in spite of the attempts of his rivals to upset him. Being upset a given number of times means elimination from the contest. The picture shows participants in both sports striving for laurels at the Larchmont races. Unlike former years, the various events were open only to members of the wealthy Larchmont colony.

COST OF IRISH LAND ACTS PUT AT ALMOST A BILLION

AUGUSTINE BIRRELL

Dublin, July 30.—Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, estimates that it will require $300,000,000 in addition to the $625,000,000 already expended to complete the operation of the land purchase acts of 1903 and 1909. These acts make it compulsory for a landlord to permit his tenant to purchase the land cultivated by the latter.

UNUSUAL SIGHT IN THE PROBATE COURT

An incident somewhat out of the ordinary occurred in Probate court Wednesday morning, when Sylvester Shipley, aged 58, a mechanic of West Holland, and Mollie Watson, aged 33 also of West Holland, accompanied by their two children, applied for a license to wed, secured it and were married by Justice T. N. Craig.

The marriage is the outgrowth of an indictment returned against the man at the last session of the grand jury, and to prevent severe fine or imprisonment, or both, the man decided to marry the Watson woman, and was escorted to the probate judge's office accordingly.

According to the marriage record neither had been married, and it was for that reason that citizens of the West Holland neighborhood had made complaint with the result that he was indicted. He paid the costs in the case and was allowed to go when he fulfilled his agreement to marry the woman with whom he is alleged to have lived for several years.

The children, a boy and girl are about four and seven years of age, respectively.

THIRTY-SIX MEN BUSY ON STREET

George W. Baker, of this city has a gang of 36 men employed on South Limestone street, Springfield, paving the portion of the street which the city council decreed should be paved, and so far he has four squares paved and all of the excavating done for the remainder of the work.

The gang of men have been busy for sometime and it will require some two weeks or more to complete the job.

Work being performed by Springfield contractors is being condemned, but the paving laid by Mr. Baker's workmen has met with general approval. The cost will be $22,000 to $25,000, which will be born by Mr. Baker.

JEFFERSON TOWNSHIP RESIDENT ARRESTED

Josie Peyton filed an affidavit against Jesse Peyton this week charging him with non-support and Peyton was brought into this city by the constable and taken before Judge Allen for preliminary hearing.

Peyton denied being guilty to part of the charge, and his trial was fixed for next Tuesday. He was engaged in threshing when apprehended by the officer.

CENTRAL DELIVERY IN CHILLICOTHE

Tuesday was the first day the new Central Delivery in Chillicothe and the citizens are more than delighted with the new method.

Twenty-four firms who are engaged in business in that city are in the organization and every one of them is greatly pleased with the innovation, which has been badly needed in Chillicothe for many years.

HUGE HOGS BRING TOP PRICE

Mr. John Nelson, of Manass, sold 14 head of hogs that brought him $450, this week. The hogs averaged 394 pounds. They were Poland Chinas and Berkshires and were as fine large hogs as have ever been shipped from this territory.

DEATHS

Jerome Price, 41, well known resident of Good Hope, passed away Wednesday morning at six o'clock, after several days illness from appendicitis.

Funeral services will be held at the house Friday, followed by burial at Greenfield. The hour of the funeral services will be announced later.

Interesting Scenes During Moving Day at Famous Old Sing Sing Prison, Overcrowded and Insanitary.

Photos by American Press Association.

Old and famous Sing Sing prison in New York State was the scene of several strange midsummer moving days recently. Because of the crowded conditions in the insanitary jail about 150 prisoners were transferred to Auburn prison, in another part of the state. For some time two prisoners had been occupying a cell in many cases, and the transfer was made to relieve conditions. These pictures show the latest moving day. At top about fifty prisoners are seen marching from the prison to the railroad station in charge of guards. At bottom are seen guards moving a box filled with handcuffs and other shackles. To show their displeasure of the change some of the unruly prisoners set fire to their cells, and extra precautions were taken to prevent an outbreak.

MEMOIR

Of Mrs. Maria Adams.

Maria Van Pelt was born in Highland county, Ohio, November 3, 1814 and died July 10th, 1913, aged 88 years, 8 months and 5 days. She was of Quaker parentage and remained a member of this faith until her marriage. In 1847 she became the wife of Abraham Miller and removed to Clinton county, Ohio. Soon after her marriage, Mrs. Miller joined the Methodist Episcopal church, and since that time she has remained an exemplary member of this denomination.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were blessed with two daughters, who are left to mourn their mother's loss, Mrs. M. M. Fisher, of Mishawaka, Ind., and Miss Anna Miller, of this city.

Abraham Miller departed from this life in 1853. In Nov. 1857, Mrs. Miller was married to Trustin Adams and came to Fayette county. Miss Maude Adams, who is also left in sorrow, is the only child of this happy union.

Mrs. Adams was universally beloved, but only those who knew her intimately can estimate her worth. To her the path of the just was as the shining light. This path she chose, and in it she walked fearlessly and cheerfully until her waiting soul saw the dawning of the perfect day.

Her life was a benediction, her death was a call to come up higher, memories of her remain with us as an example of Christian womanhood. She was a faithful member of Grace Church, and delighted in its services. By her death the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Grace Church, loses its oldest and one of its most interested members.

Uniting with the daughters in their grief, are two step-children, Miss Agusta Adams, of this city and Mr. Will Adams, of Greenfield, Ohio, also two sisters and a brother, Mrs. L. V. Stephens, Mrs. H. C. Wheeler and Dr. R. G. Van Pelt, of South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. Adams leaves a large circle of friends, who extend loving sympathy to those who are bereft of her sweet companionship.

"CONSCIENCE FUND" SLUMP.

Receipts For Fiscal Year Only $2,814. Lowest Since 1901.

Washington. — Uncle Sam's "conscience fund" received in the twelve months ended June 30 last only $2,814.44, the lowest amount for any one year since 1901 and comparable with a hundred year average of $4,200.

In the last 100 years the government has received conscience contributions aggregating $434,615.69. The fund was established in President Madison's administration in 1811, when the first contribution of $5 was received. The largest amount ever received in one year was $10,808 in 1902, and the greatest individual contribution, $18,669.00, was made to the collector of customs in New York more than a decade ago by an unknown.

ICEBERGS REAL TERRORS.

Captains Who Were on Patrol Duty Issue Timely Warnings.

Washington. — Icebergs are the real terrors of the sea, giving no warning of their approach in thick weather, and the only rational course for a navigator to adopt when his ship is in a fog in their vicinity is to stop and wait for the haze to lift. This in effect, is the burden of the reports of Captains C. E. Johnston and A. S. Gamble of the cutters Seneca and Miami, which from April to July patrolled the transatlantic lane of travel to prevent a repetition of the Titanic disaster.

"The only safe way to navigate in regions of icebergs," warned Captain Johnston, "is to stop during thick weather and to run very slowly on dark nights."

Practical Piety.

The goodly minister saw one of his parishioners running rapidly down the road, trying to keep in sight of a retreating form ahead.

"Ah," called the minister, "whither away, my brother?"

Seeking the race was lost anyway, the chaser stopped and pantingly replied: "That confounded thief stole my coat!"

"Ah, and you were following the Scriptural admonition to give him your cloak also, were you?"

"No," said the parishioner frankly, "but I intended, if I caught him, to give him a belt!"—Judge.

Italy's Marriage Brokers.

In Italy marriage brokers are a regular institution. They have pocketbooks filled with the names of marriageable maidens in various ranks of life and go about trying to arrange matches. When they are successful they receive a commission, and very likely something extra as a voluntary gift from their customers.

OFFERS BODY FOR SALE.

Convict Fears Family Will Claim It After Death Comes.

Savannah, Ga.—Hated of his family prompted Thomas A. McCollough, a convict on the Monroe county chain gang, to advertise his body for sale to the highest bidder.

His advertisement reads: "For Sale.—To the highest bidder for cash. I offer my body, which is six feet high, weight 175 pounds, large frame, well proportioned, 30 years of age and Caucasian race."

I have a sentence of eighteen years for killing a negro in Griffin in 1911 and have no prospects, no hopes and no friends; hence, being in bad health, I am asking this proposition.

Any one wishing to consummate a trade address Thomas A. McCollough, box 271, care Monroe county convict camp.

Self sworn never again to have anything to do with his relatives, he is now in mortal fear that his body after death will be turned over to them for burial. This fear has been increased by the physician's statement that he is suffering from heart disease and has not long to live.

The money which his body would bring is a secondary matter to the convict. His one real desire is that death shall not stop the breach between himself and his family.

MILLIONAIRE DAY WORKER.

Yale Man Puts In Long Hours at Rubber Factory.

Boston.—Dinner pail in hand, young Elisha S. Converse, Yale student and a millionaire son of a multimillionaire, steps from his Beacon street home into a costly automobile, drives over to a Malden rubber shoe factory and toils nine hours in a room where the temperature is hardly ever less than 100 degrees. This happens every week-day. Young Converse is determined to learn his father's business from top to bottom, but instead of beginning at the top he has begun at the bottom.

The father is Colonel Harry E. Converse of Marion, rubber manufacturer and prominent yachtsman.

Sometimes young Converse has to handle red-hot heels which he puts on the rubber shoes. He swings big shears, too, with which he cuts off the corners of the heels. All in all, his work at his bench in the heel room is considered a pretty hot job.

STOP HUGE WASTE OF NATURAL GAS

U. S. Experts Make Saving of $13,000,000 a Year.

Washington.—According to Van H. Manning, assistant to the director of the United States bureau of mines, experts of the bureau have given a noteworthy demonstration of scientific conservation of natural resources that has resulted in a saving of 150,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas daily in Oklahoma. This gas is estimated as worth $37,500, or $13,000,000 a year.

The two employees of the bureau of mines who are credited with having accomplished this result are A. J. Pollard of Bakersfield, Cal., and A. G. Heggan of Pittsburgh. They are regularly attached to the bureau as oil experts. They were sent to Oklahoma by Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, director of the bureau.

It was estimated at the time Pollard and Heggan entered the Oklahoma field that every day 250,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas, worth $62,500, was being wasted. That meant a loss of $23,000,000 a year. Operators and drillers were skeptical of the assertion of the two experts that they could prevent waste by a certain system of drilling, but, according to Mr. Manning, they have reached the conclusion that the experts were right and are making preparations to stop the waste.

A DARING SCOUT.

His Quick Wit Fooled the Federals and Saved His Neck.

Wat Bowie, a scout for the Confederate army, was a young Maryland lawyer at the time the great conflict began. After months of successful work he was captured and taken to Washington and sentenced to be hanged. He made his escape, and in "On Hazardous Service" W. G. Beymer tells of the weeks that he was followed by secret service men and small details of Federal cavalry and how by his very audacity and quick wit he escaped recapture.

He blundered into a camp of them one morning at dawn and saw instantly that retreat was impossible; they were ready to open fire with a dozen revolvers. Without hesitation he strode up to the men and shouted indignantly: "You make mighty free with my rifle! With all this wood round you did not need to burn my fences!" He seemed very angry.

"Who are you?" a corporal stammered.

"The owner of the rifle, of course!" And then, apparently somewhat mollified, he went on: "Well, well! War is war, but don't do any more damage than you can help, boys." He sat down with them to their breakfast and chatted with them pleasantly. One of them asked if he had seen Wat Bowie and described him accurately. At the description they all stared at him and moved uneasily. In doubt as to what was to be done, he talked with the description in every respect. But his insolence in walking up to them and upbraiding them for burning "his" rifle made them doubt their own eyes.

"Why, yes," he drawled. "Wat Bowie was in these parts last week. I know him well. They say he has gone to the north part of the county, where he hails from. I don't know, though, as to that."

Then rising and stretching himself he looked down into their doubt filled eyes and laughed at them—laughed in their very faces—and said:

"I'm glad you all met me on my own hand. You might have made trouble for me elsewhere, for they all say I look like him a lot. Goodbye, boys! Good luck!"

"Sapsy."

"At Liverpool street station, London," said an American, "I asked a booking clerk whether he could tell me where Sapsyworth was. His answer was that he had never heard of such a place. 'But,' I urged, 'is not that the way the country people pronounce Sawbridgeworth?' 'No, indeed,' he laughingly replied. 'They call it Sapsy.'"

THREE I LEAGUE NEWS.

Outfielder Kaylor Sold—Miller is Quincy's Mainstay.

The sale of another Three I league star was announced recently. Outfielder Ted Kaylor of Danville being taken by Oakland of the Pacific Coast league for a sum said to be $2,000. Kaylor ranked with the leading hitters of the league and also the fastest.

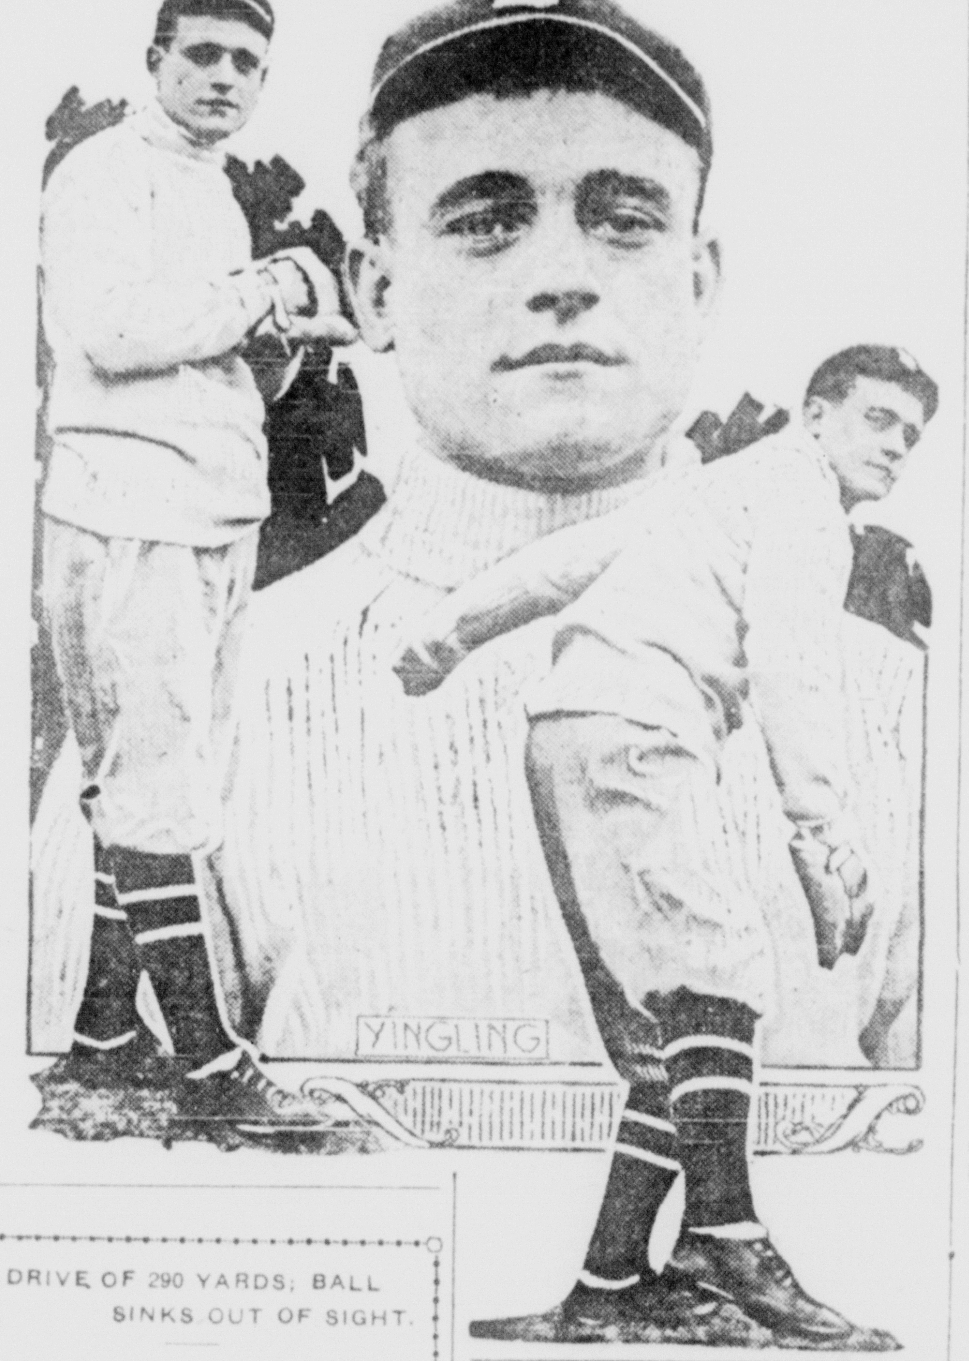

The sale of Pitcher Jasper by Dubuque to the Chicago White Sox for future delivery has been announced. This sale has been expected since the opening of the season, a number of scouts reporting favorably upon this player. The Dubuque team has an excellent chance to win the pennant and will probably retain Jasper until the close of the Three I season.

Much of the success of the Quincy team in advancing from the bottom to the first division has been due to the effective work of Pitcher Dan Miller, who was taken on when he was dropped by Dubuque, due to a surplus of men.

SOUTHPAW YINGLING BEGINS TO LOOK A REAL PITCHER TO MANAGER DAHLEN

Brooklyn, July 30.—Manager Bill Dahlen of the Superbs begins to think that Southpaw Yingling is a real pitcher. He has shown spurts of form, but has been uncertain as to where the ball was going when he turned it loose with full speed. In recent games he has shown better control, and he has been remarkably steady when men were on bases. This is the real test of a pitcher, and Dahlen expressed much satisfaction at the showing Yingling made. He will take his regular turn in the box as long as he displays the form he has on his last appearances.

DRIVE OF 290 YARDS; BALL SINKS OUT OF SIGHT.

At Homewood, Ill., E. P. Allis 3d of Milwaukee, Wis., golf champion, recently established a new course record in the qualifying round of the amateur golf championship on the country club course here when he made the first hole, a distance of 290 yards in one stroke. Par on the hole is four.

Allis had a strong wind at his back that undoubtedly aided the drive, but Professional Tom Bendelow, in charge of the tournament, declared Allis made the prettiest and longest drive he ever saw.

SPORTING DATES.

Many Important Contests Are Yet to Be Decided.

Many important championship events in the world of sport will be decided in August and September. Among them are the following:

The New York Yacht club will cruise along the Atlantic coast, and Sept. 1 the fourth International sonder yacht contest with the Germans will be sailed off Marblehead.

There will be a golf championship for the national open title at the Brookline (Mass.) Country club in mid-September and two grand circuit meets for harness horses. The senior polo championship will occur at Narragansett Pier, followed by the junior and open events.

On Aug. 6 the New York Yacht club fleet will assemble at New London, Conn., for the cruise to Marblehead, Mass. During the cruise the annual races for the Astor and King's cups will be sailed off Newport. The latter event is open to all yacht clubs in North America. The annual regatta for American and Canadian oarsmen will be held on the Charles river basin Aug. 8 and 9.

The national lawn tennis championships at Newport will commence Aug. 18. It is hoped that this meeting will be something of a welcome gathering for the American team, consisting of McLoughlin, Hackett, Williams and Johnson, who are confidently expected to be back by that time with the Davis cup. There is a chance, too, that some of the foreigners may be tempted to come over for revenge for their defeat in the All-England championship.

RUBE BENTON, STAR HURLER OF CINCINNATI BASE BALL TEAM IS FATALLY INJURED

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 29.—Pitcher Rube Benton, of the Reds, is dying at the Cincinnati Hospital as a result of an accident at 11 o'clock last night, when he ran into inbound Madison Road car No. 5 with his motorcycle. The accident occurred at Madison road and Moor-mann avenue. The car was crowded, and the mishap greatly alarmed the passengers, but no one left his seat. Dr. Harry Hines, the club physician, says Benton's condition is critical. At the City Hospital it was found that he was suffering from a fractured jaw, contusion of the brain, a broken leg, internal injuries and a frightfully lacerated face.

Benton gave his home as 1919 Kinney avenue, Walnut Hills, his full name as John C. Benton and his age as 23 years.

Rosenberger and Baker to Represent U.S. Abroad.

Jim Rosenberger of the Irish-American A. C. and Homer Baker of the New York A. C. have been selected to represent the east on the All-American team of five that is to make the long trip to Australia this fall for the purpose of taking part in the Australian and New Zealand athletic championships.

The other side of the world has heard so much about the prowess of American athletes, particularly since the Olympic games at Stockholm, that it is anxious to see some of the best of them perform.

James E. Sullivan, secretary of the A. A. U., was recently asked if he'd select two men to represent this section on the team that was to be sent to the antipodes. He originally chose Platt Adams and Abel Kiviat, but neither will be able to spare the time from business.

Rosenberger is a crack sprinter and also can do well in any distance up to the quarter of a mile. He is also a fair shot putter. Baker is the American champion at 880 yards and also can run a fast mile.

Two Outfielders For Detroit Club.

An option has been secured by a representative of the Detroit American league club on Outfielders Williams and Smith of Regina, Canada. They will report to Detroit at the end of the season.

Boost Washington—Buy at home.

Hartzel, the present manager of Toledo, and will try to get Stovall's signature attached to a 1914 contract at the end of this season.

Toledo now has one of the best hitting clubs in the American association, and with a fighting manager handling the team the Hens should be close to the top of the league. Hartzel played with Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics before going to Toledo two years ago.
